

Schedule-at-a-Glance: Newmarket Heritage Festival 2005

FRIDAY NIGHT, SEPT 16

HERITAGE FESTIVAL WELCOME PARTY!

International Soup and Chowder Fest

Newmarket's favorite chefs serve up a taste of our community heritage: New England fish chowder, corn chowder, French pea soup, and more. Cost: Adults, $7; children, $3.50. Proceeds to benefit the Newmarket Main Street Corporation, producers of the Newmarket Heritage Festival. Main tent. (5:00-7:00)

Smoked Kielbasa Emergency Polka Unit

This Polish music band spices up the soup and chowder fest with music of the old country—traditional village dance music, polkas, tangos, waltzes, and more. Main tent. (6:30-7:00)

Heritage Festival Opening Ceremonies

The Newmarket Main Street Corporation honors this year's Keeper of the Heritage and celebrates the start of the eighth annual Newmarket Heritage Festival. Main tent. (7:00-7:30)

Smoked Kielbasa Emergency Polka Unit Returns

Music of the old country continues with traditional village dance music, polkas, tangos, waltzes, and more. Main tent. (7:30-9:00)

Keepers of the Heritage

As a community grows, it is especially important that it not lose sight of its historical, cultural, and natural resources. Each year the Newmarket Heritage Festival bestows a "Keeper of the Heritage" award, honoring those who, "without thought of thanks, praise, or worldly reward, render outstanding service that benefits all residents of the community"—and so preserves the richness of our heritage.
