

Schedule-at-a-Glance: Newmarket Heritage Festival 2006

FRIDAY NIGHT, SEPT 15

HERITAGE FESTIVAL WELCOME PARTY!

International Soup and Chowder Fest

Newmarket's favorite chefs serve up a taste of our community heritage: seafood, clam, and haddock chowders; Polish kapusta; cheesy onion soup; Portuguese sausage soup; vegetarian minestrone soup; and more. Cost: Adults, $7; children, $3.50. Proceeds to benefit the Newmarket Main Street Corporation, producers of the Newmarket Heritage Festival. Main tent. (5:00-7:00)

Heritage Festival Opening Ceremonies

The Newmarket Main Street Corporation honors this year's Keeper of the Heritage and celebrates the start of the ninth annual Newmarket Heritage Festival. Main tent. (7:00-7:15)

The Funky Divas of Gospel

They're back! Don't miss this hand-clapping, toe-tapping kick-off to the 2006 Newmarket Heritage Festival. Main tent. (7:15-8:30)

The Serfs at the Stone Church

The night's not over yet! Head up Zion's hill, just a five-minute walk from the festival's main stage and step inside the historic Stone Church. Listen to the sounds of Gary Sredzienski, his accordion, and his rockin' band, The Serfs. Free with a Heritage Festival button. Stone Church. (9:00-11:00)

Keepers of the Heritage

As a community grows, it is especially important that it not lose sight of its historical, cultural, and natural resources. Each year the Newmarket Heritage Festival bestows a "Keeper of the Heritage" award, honoring those who, "without thought of thanks, praise, or worldly reward, render outstanding service that benefits all residents of the community"—and so preserves the richness of our heritage.	1998	Sylvia & Forbes Getchell
	1999	Handtub Association
	2000	Richard & Priscilla Schanda
	2001	Judy Ryan
	2002	Isabel Donovan
	2003	Nick Popov
	2004	Michael Provost
	2005	Jennie & George Griswold

Activities & Exhibits

SATURDAY

Sandy Point Discovery Center

Learn what lurks in the waters of Great Bay! Make and decorate a whirllygig. (10-3 pm)

Jester Hats

Using paper, glitter, glue and more, create festive and playful hats and puppets with Stacie Sevigny.

Nature Rubbings

Nature is a common inspiration for art. Explore with art teacher Janet Riley the texture of natural objects. Create your own scrapbook using just paper and crayons.

Face Painting

Have your face transformed into an amazing work of art by the expert face painters from Newmarket's Aryaloka Buddhist Center.

Giant Puppets

Be part of this year's Heritage Festival community art project! Help create fantastic giant puppets with artists Patricia Kaufman and Jean Husby. (A short festival grounds parade and presentation of the puppets will take place Sunday from 4:15-4:45. All who contribute to the project are invited to participate.)

SUNDAY

Pysanky

Decorating eggs with hot wax and dye is an ancient form of Ukrainian folk art. Give it a try with teacher Gail Hahn. (Age five and up; must be accompanied by a grown-up.)

Original Jewelry

Make your own bracelet with local artist Marjke Yatevitch. Work with beads from around the world.

Animal Rocks

Newmarket Elementary School art teacher Sandy Stowe will help you turn your rock into an adorable animal using paint.

Natural Gatherings

Design your own flower arrangement using dried flowers and herbs with local flower designer Sarah Pellerin.

Clay Play

Get your hands dirty while creating your own original masterpiece with help from Amy Beaudet.

Giant Puppets

Help create fantastic giant puppets with artists Patricia Kaufman and Jean Husby. (See full description above.)
